

L2

Healthcare Support Workers may work in hospitals, clinical environments, nursing homes, GP surgeries and domiciliary care. You will be working with people, feeling passionate about supporting and enabling them to live a more independent and fulfilling life is a rewarding and worthwhile job that provides excellent career opportunities.

WHO IS THIS QUALIFICATION FOR?

This apprenticeship is suitable for those working in the care sector and can encompass a range of roles, which include:

- Healthcare support worker
- Healthcare assistant
- Care assistant
- Night care assistant
- Home care support worker
- Substance misuse worker

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES MAY INCLUDE:

- Handling information including care planning
- Promoting health and safety
- Practicing infection prevention and control
- Assist in the administration of medication
- Support individuals undergoing healthcare activities
- Supporting individuals in therapy sessions
- Recording and reporting on individuals

APPRENTICESHIP OVERVIEW:

You will learn about key areas such as:

- Duty of care
- Communicating in care settings
- Responsibilities of a care worker
- Handling information in care settings
- Equality & inclusion in care settings
- Personal development in care settings
- Safeguarding & protection in care settings
- Health, safety & wellbeing in care settings
- Implementing person-centred approaches in care settings

What you will gain:

- Leadership qualities of a front line worker
- Relevant core skills education and training
- Additional activities for continuing professional development

End Point Assessment:

To achieve this apprenticeship standard, the employer, training provider and apprentice will agree when the apprentice is ready and competent to undertake the independent end assessment.

The Health and Social Care Apprenticeships provide learners with the knowledge and skills needed to work in a variety of health and social care settings. From helping people with a particular need to providing vital assistance to healthcare professionals in the care of patients.

Participants will learn skills and techniques that will provide a lifelong vocation and enjoy a career where they provide valuable care for others.

- » 12-18 months
- » Functional Skills English and Maths Level 1
- » Care Certificate Level 2
- » Diploma in Care Level 2

PROGRESSION:

This apprenticeship provides an ideal entry into the occupation and supports progression within the sector.

The Level 3 Senior Healthcare Support Worker will develop leadership and team leader skills as well as autonomy for working in a clinical environment.

At Sigma UK Group we are committed to inspiring you to succeed and are here to support you throughout every stage of your Apprenticeship.